

First conditional

1 Circle the correct option.

Six ways to keep 'chi', or life energy, moving around your home

- 1 If there 's / will be plenty of light in the entrance, chi comes / will come into the house.
- 2 If you put / 'll put a mirror opposite the door, it reflects / will reflect chi out of your house.
- 3 You 're / 'll be lucky if you have / 'll have an aquarium in the living room.
- 4 Chi doesn't move / won't move easily if you don't put / won't put lights in dark corners.
- 5 If you don't throw / won't throw dry flowers away, they accumulate / 'll accumulate negative energy.
- 6 Electromagnetic waves destroy / will destroy chi if your sound system 's / will be in a prominent position.

2 Write questions in the first conditional. Then answer them.

- 1 you / read / in bed / you / not feel / tired tonight ?
Will you read in bed if you don't feel tired tonight?
Yes, I will.
- 2 what / you / do / the weather / be / good next weekend ?

- 3 your family / have / a summer holiday / where / you / go?

4 your friends / not meet / on Saturday evening, / you / stay / at home ?

5 what / you / study / you / go / to university ?

6 your next class / not finish / on time / what / you / say ?

Future time clauses

3 Complete the sentences for you. Use will, won't or the present simple.

- 1 I'll play computer games _____ when I finish my homework.
- 2 I _____ after I have dinner.
- 3 As soon as I get up tomorrow, _____
- 4 I'll probably have a big party when _____
- 5 I won't get married until _____
- 6 _____ before I'm thirty years old.

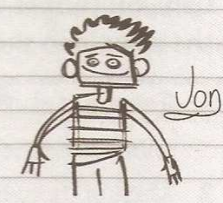

4 Choose the best option.

In the future we (1) are going to will do more things to protect the environment. I (2) 'm going to / will turn off the water when I clean my teeth. This (3) is going to / will save water. My mum (4) isn't going to / won't throw away paper and glass. And we (5) aren't going to / won't have enough oil in the world in fifty years' time so my dad (6) 's going to / will cycle to work every day.

5 Write the words in order about the future home.

- 1 might / robots / our meals / prepare
Robots might prepare our meals.
- 2 the rubbish / probably / will / our waste bins / divide
- 3 in an oxygen tent / probably / we / sleep / won't
- 4 will / switch on and off automatically / lights in the house / probably
- 5 very thin / might / the TV screen / be
- 6 a computer / probably / the bathroom mirror / won't / be

6 Write about Jon's future. Use will probably, might or probably won't.

I think so have children be a mechanic	I don't think so be rich and famous travel in space

- 1 He'll probably have children.
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____
- 6 _____

7 Match the parts of the sentences about next weekend.

- | | |
|--------------|--------------------------|
| 1 I'm going | a won't get up early. |
| 2 I'll | b going to watch TV. |
| 3 I might | c probably meet friends. |
| 4 I probably | d to go swimming. |
| 5 I'm not | e go to the cinema. |

8 Write five different sentences about your plans for the summer holidays.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____